Bill,

Please let me know how you would like us to proceed. I am ok with Blair's suggestion. Or, I would be glad to have a committee conference call if you prefer to go that way. Perhaps Ben as the Chair needs to weigh in ?

Thanks,

John

I am fine with that. That is the way it really functions anyway.

Hey John and Bill – I see where you're scheduling a nominating committee meeting/call for John, Terry and myself.

May I propose that since the executive committee has already served this function, that we go ahead and say that the executive committee IS our nominating committee and that the work has been done? You, John, as the chair of the committee would still present candidates at the board meeting of course.

I actually think it's better optics if the exec committee is positioned / and is actually the nominating committee so that it's understood to be a broader group doing the nominating.

What do you guys think?
